Committee Recommends Blaine Tax Bill Note To Allies Lausanne Conference Near Break Promises Pay In Full By 1931

ONE MAN TAX COMMISSION IDEA KILLED

Governor's Revenue Measure To Be Taken Up By Senate
On May 9

By Associated Press
Madison—Governor Blaine's general tax bill, recommended for passage by the joint finance committee Wednesday, was made a special order of business in the senate for Wednesday, May 9. If a sub amendment is offered at that time, as is expected, it will be laid over until a later date.

Madison—The joint finance committee reported Governor Blaine's general income tax bill to the floor of the senate Wednesday, recommended for passage. Six committee members were recorded in favor of the measure with three against it.

One amendment offered by Assemblyman A. E. Matheson, Janesville, was attached, removing the one-man commission feature of the original bill. When this change was accepted the following line-up was shown on the roll call for measure:

FOR PASSAGE—Senators: Henry Huber, Stoughton; C. E. Casperson, Frederic; J. C. Schumann, Watertown; Assemblymen John Gamper, Medford;

SWAPPING VOTES
Madison—Rumors of trades by which votes in the legislature are exchanged for positions in the state service are being circulated among legislators here as the controversy over tax legislation becomes more sharp.

Employment of relatives of at least one member by one state commission is being watched following the reported change in position on the tax question by a member of the upper house.

It is known here that a variety of influences are being brought to bear on members proceeding on the important tax measures.

C. E. Tuffery, Rosebush and Clinton Price, Mauston.

AGAINST PASSAGE—Assemblymen Robert Caldwell, Loda; A. E. Matheson, Janesville and A. C. Ruffing, Milwaukee.

Five members of the committee, at least four of whom are present, had these men present the lineup would have resulted in a tie or in an adverse report.

Governor Blaine appeared before the committee at its session preceding the vote. He explained provisions of the measure which abolishes 30 assessment districts in the state, does away with equalization boards, establishes an income tax rate of from one half of one per cent to ten per cent on individual earnings and from one half of one per cent to seven per cent on corporations' earnings, removes five-sixths of the personal property offset and repeals mill taxes for state purposes.

After the governor had given his explanation, answering questions of committee members he retired and the finance body voted on his bill.

CLAIMS MAJORITY
The stand of Assemblyman Ruffing, Socialist, against the measure, indicates that the three Socialist members of the assembly are opposed to it. Despite this opposition in a closely divided upper house Governor Blaine claims 17 votes for his tax proposal. He has not explained where he got this bare majority. The opposition to his bill asserts that it will do well to muster 15 votes, and they continue to contend that it is slated for death knowing the committee report.

Confident of his ability to pass the measure through the upper house, Governor Blaine is ignoring moves to hold caucuses to gain support for the tax plan he recommends. He is prepared to use all of the force of his position to bring every senator aligned with the progressive party into line.

Wreck Edifice As Klan Is Extolled In Church

Bond Brook, N. J.—Police Wednesday sought the leaders of the mob which Tuesday night caused 100 "holy rollers" to barricade themselves in the Pillar of Fire church after a melee in which many women and men were injured.

More than 600 men were in the attacking party which attempted to rush the stairways leading to the second floor where the beleaguered 100 had barricaded themselves.

The first floor was a wreck as the result of a fight which began early in the evening when an unidentified speaker extolled the Ku Klux Klan. Elias Horn and Lawrence Winter, members of the Pillar of Fire church, were arrested on charges of assault and later were rescued from the mob which clamored about the jail with shouts of "lynch them."

The police spirited them from the back door of the building and hurried them to the county jail at Somerville.

The meeting had been advertised for a week as a movement for the organization of a chapter of the Klan.

Coroner Oscar Wolff planned to summon Dr. Walter Dill Scott, president of the university as witness, it is said.

IRON ORE MINERS GET PAY INCREASE

By Associated Press
Ironwood, Mich.—Officials of the Oliver Iron Mining Co., a subsidiary of the United States Steel, corporation, received notice that a 10 per cent increase in miners wages was effective Tuesday.

The Oliver Iron Mining company operates about one-fourth of the mines on the Gogebic range.

The Steel Tube Co. of America and the Oglebay, Norton Mining Co. both operating large groups of mines on the range, have intimated their employees will be granted an increase.

Mine officials attribute the increase to the recent raise in price of iron ore and the cut of 15 cents a ton in freight rates to the docks. High wages in manufacturing centers, it is claimed, have caused a considerable shortage in labor in the mines here.

Assemblyman Lawson, Walworth-co and Vincent, Kanosh-co strongly urged passage of the bill declaring that numerous dance halls operate in their counties during the summer months and "are a menace to our youth."

The assembly reversed its action last week by which it engrossed the Grimstad bill, seeking to prevent the use of automobiles for immoral purposes, and after brief reconsideration voted to indefinitely postpone the bill 56 to 28.

The bill would have empowered the state board of education, set as a special order in the assembly Wednesday, was again laid over pending a ruling by Speaker Dahl on the relevancy of the substitute amendment of Miller. The bill will again come before the assembly Friday.

SHIP LIQUOR PROBLEM FOR WORLD COURT

Many Complications Have Arisen As Result Of Decision Of Supreme Justices

BULLETIN
New York.—The government, centering a triangular attack on the rum fleet off the Jersey coast Wednesday had seized a tug and motor launch carrying provisions and fuel to the alien craft anchored outside the three mile limit.

BULLETIN
Washington—While government officials continued to puzzle Wednesday over application of the Supreme court decision on ship liquor, coast guard headquarters issued an order concentrating all available coast guard boats in the north Atlantic along the New Jersey shore. It was said that henceforth, the rum fleet musted off Atlantic highlands would be under surveillance of two coast guard cutters day and night.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1923 by the Post Pub. Co. Washington—The liquor problem as it affects foreign vessels entering American ports may be carried to the World Court of International Justice.

Foreign governments will not accept the decision of the Supreme court of the United States that municipal law applies to possession of liquor aboard their ships but will contest this point through diplomatic channels and if they cannot get a satisfactory decision the only recourse would be to a higher tribunal, such as the world court. And America doesn't have to be a member of the court to agree to submit the controversy for adjudication.

HARD TO ENFORCE
Although the Supreme court's decision doesn't have much practical effect because American ships still will be forbidden to sell liquor outside the three-mile limit in pursuance of a presidential decree, it will mean complications with respect to America's relations with foreign governments and their vessels.

To search every ship that comes into American ports is such an expensive and difficult task that the word of the captain of a vessel will have to be accepted and he will be tempted to look the other way while the liquors are hidden by his crew.

It seems to be agreed among shipping men that the law will be a dead letter so far as enforcement applies to foreign vessels in American ports.

MAY IGNORE DECISION
Competent authorities on international law, however, say that foreign governments will be well within their rights in deliberately ignoring the Supreme court decision as well as any attempts on the part of American officials to enforce the prohibition laws.

That is the Best of Germany's Ability, Berlin Tells Allies as Stabilization of Mark and Nonaggression Pact is Asked

Berlin—Germany's latest reparation offer proposes that the sum total of her obligations in cash and kind under the Versailles treaty be fixed at 30,000,000,000 gold marks.

The German government, in a note made public Wednesday simultaneously with its receipt by the entente and Washington governments, proposes that twenty billions of the total be raised before July 1, 1929, by a bond issue at normal rates of interest on the international money market. Five billions would be raised before July 1, 1929, in the same manner and the remaining sum similarly before July 1, 1931.

The note asserts that Germany, in accordance with existing treaties, will also make payments in kind which are to be credited to her account. The note expresses the government's conviction that the new proposals represent the utmost limit of Germany's capacity to pay and expresses grave doubt as to whether the offer does not exceed her ability in view of the heavy dislocation and weakening of the Reich's economic organization caused by the Ruhr occupation.

Ask for Commission
In case the creditor governments do not share Germany's belief, that the unprejudiced party could arrive at a higher estimate in view of her general condition, the Berlin government proposes that the whole reparations question be left to the decision of an international commission, free from every political influence as suggested by Secretary Hughes.

Payments in kind are to be guaranteed by long term private contracts, breach or violation of which would make offenders subject to fines.

The note proposes that the first twenty billion marks of the total of thirty billion be offered for subscription immediately. Interest on bonds up to July 1, 1927 would be taken out by means of a loan before July 1, 1927, interest of 5 per cent would be paid on that sum from said date, in addition to 1/2 per cent for amortization.

WANT FRENCH TO LEAVE
The note asserts that Germany is making her offer without desisting from her program of passive resistance which will be continued until the annals which in excess of the stipulations of the Versailles treaty are evacuated and until condition on the Rhine are restored according to terms laid down in the Rhineland agreement.

Fulfillment of Germany's obligations, the note continues, depends on the stabilization of her currency therefore it is necessary in connection with the regulation of the reparations problem to bring about a methodic and permanent stabilization in order to remove the apprehensions of other countries with respect to ruinous German competition. Strengthening of her currency will also enable Germany to restore her internal finances, the note says.

GUARANTEES ARE ASKED
In order to realize this program and also to safeguard the interests of those who finance the loans, the German government says it is essential that there be no more forcible seizures of securities, that no further sanctions be imposed, that Germany be freed from the unproductive expenses which she is now burdened and that she also be liberated forthwith from all political and economical restrictions.

The proposals also suggest that in behalf of the economic rehabilitation of Europe the countries concerned arrive at an understanding with dealings in important commodities. It is the opinion that in this note expresses that long term private contracts for deliveries of coal and coke are especially important.

The offer of an anti aggression pact on the Rhine is renewed and the government suggests that all conflicts arising out of the question of national securities be submitted to an international court for arbitration.

With regard to the two proposed loans of five billion marks each the note proposes that in case these amounts cannot be raised fully by issues of bonds at normal rates before the dates fixed, an impartial international committee shall decide whether to the nomination.

As the third alternative, the note proposes a court of arbitration composed of a representative of the reparations commission and a representative of the German government to gather with a chair whom the president of the United States would be requested to nominate in case the other two members failed to agree to the nomination.

1 DEAD, 5 HURT IN MINNESOTA STORM

St. Paul—One death and five injuries in addition to property damage was the toll of severe electrical storms in Minnesota Tuesday.

The most severe property damage reported was near New Elm where two herds of prize cattle and swine and three large barns were burned in a fire caused by lightning. The loss was $100,000. The place was owned by Frederick Cronk.

Heavy rains fell in most sections of the state.

when and how, the amount not yet accounted for is to be raised.

COMMITTEES SUGGESTED
The same commission would decide in July, 1921, whether, when and how, the interest not provided for in the first instance is subsequent to be raised.

As to the makeup of this commission Germany proposes that either the syndicate which puts up the first loan of twenty billion gold marks or a committee of international businessmen be chosen, according to the suggestion of Secretary of State Hughes—a committee on which Germany is to be represented with rights equal to those of other nations.

As the third alternative, the note proposes a court of arbitration composed of a representative of the reparations commission and a representative of the German government to gather with a chair whom the president of the United States would be requested to nominate in case the other two members failed to agree to the nomination.

EFFORT TO REVISE ESCH-CUMMINS ACT WILL STIR UP ROW

Friends Of Railroad Measure Considering Important Changes

Special to Post-Crescent

Washington—Revision of the Esch-Cummings act at the hands of its friends will be proposed in the next congress by administration leaders to frustrate the plans of the congressional farm bloc to emasculate the law and secure a general slashing of freight rates.

The farm bloc has placed transportation legislation at the head of its list for consideration by the next congress, and will demand not only lower rates to enable agriculturalists to get the products off the farm to market more cheaply, but will fight also for repeal of the guaranty, rate-making provisions of the Esch-Cummings act, which has been the subject of continued bickering ever since its passage. Farm bloc leaders say they will urge also action by congress on the Henry Ford offer to lease and operate the Muscle Shoals property to manufacture cheap fertilizer, and the truth in fabrics bill but will press for railroad legislation ahead of all else, because prices received by the farmer for his product are sadly out of balance with transportation charges and everything the farmer buys.

President Harding, it is stated, is unwilling to have the progressive bloc, which seeks repeal of the Esch-Cummings law, to take the lead in proposing changes in the laws governing control of the railways. On the contrary, it is expected that the first move will be made by Chairman Cummings, of the senate interstate commerce committee.

The chief item on the administration program for amending the law is in the matter of consolidation of the railway systems. Senator Cummings will propose, with the backing of the president, to make the merger of railway systems compulsory instead of optional. It was provided in the original draft of the Esch-Cummings law, but was amended in congress. The pooling of all railway equipment under one central agency in order to prevent car shortage and make equipment available wherever needed will be part of Senator Cummings' plan.

Men Never Would Drink Moonshine Whisky If They Saw It In Making

By Associated Press

Madison—Advice to the people of Wisconsin to "leave moonshine whisky alone if they have any regard for their health and welfare," is given in a statement issued by the prohibition department. H. M. Lampert, the department chemist, prepared the statement occasioned by the increased use of illicit liquor in the state.

"There are many people who are laboring under the impression that moonshine is not harmful and poisonous, at least, not any more so than bonded whisky which has been under government supervision and control," Mr. Lampert said. "The best of it, though, is impure and dangerous, absolutely unfit for beverage purposes."

"The state prohibition department desires the public to know the character of this poisonous drink. A word might be said in regard to conditions under which some of this moonshine is made. Generally, the lawbreaker has the mash hidden, but it is practically impossible to keep the characteristic odor of fermentation of mash under cover. It is necessary to have it warm before it will 'work.'"

"However, there have been innumerable instances where mash has been found in the ground, under manure, in pig sty, ditches and in many equally dirty, filthy and unsanitary surroundings. These conditions absolutely uncontrolled and under very unsanitary surroundings are especially favorable to wild fermentation leading to the fermentation of organic acids, acetone and butyl alcohol known to be deadly poisonous."

"Is it any wonder that many other compounds and byproducts are formed during the fermentation at the same time that ethyl alcohol is being formed? After the completion of the fermentation, the mash is transferred to the still. Practically all of these contrivances or stills are dirty and unsanitary. No care is taken to regulate the temperature, when fermenting and distilling, and quite naturally the byproducts and everything fermented and volatile comes over into the stillage, mixing with the alcohol and water, the main constituents of whisky."

"At high temperatures, the acid in the mash acts on the copper of the still, forming verdigris, which is very poisonous. The most practical distiller cannot make salable whisky in small amounts. It is impossible."

"One must remember that the primary object of the moonshiner is to make and sell his illicit liquor in the shortest possible time, having absolutely no regard for the quality of his product. His desire is quantity. He is neither interested in the poisons connected or the health and welfare of the individual. If the consumer could only know how most of this moonshine is made, he would never touch a drop of the rank poison."

"The conditions under which good bonded liquor is made are entirely different. Only the choicest materials used, the mashing, mashing, fermenting, distilling and that aging are made under the most sanitary conditions."

"New whisky is raw, crude, harsh in taste and flavor and distinctly unpalatable. The moonshine is only more so, being also nauseating and deleterious. The best of it is impure and dangerous. The new whisky is somewhat similar to the moonshine in its colorlessness, has somewhat the same characteristic odor and flavor, but there are many more impurities and byproducts in the moonshine."

WATER REACHES HIGHEST STAGE

Opening Of Gates At Neenah Dam Expected To Help Reduce Lake

Four new sluice gates in the reconstructed Neenah dam have been opened for the first time this year and it is expected that the run-off from Lake Winnebago will take care of any extra flowage into the lake.

Present indications are that the region of the upper Fox river will escape a flood this season. While the water in Lake Winnebago has not started to recede, it is approaching a stationary stage. The reading of the Randall gauge last week was 163 1/2 inches above the crest of the Menasha dam.

At upriver points equally gratifying conditions obtain. At Gills Landing the water has started to recede, a drop of one inch being noted between Thursday and Friday. The water is also receding at Shiocton, where trouble usually starts. This year the highest point reached there on the gauge was 11.02 on April 25, the highest point last year was 12.02. Water usually leaves the banks at Shiocton at about the 9 foot stage. There is some mud under water now, but may be usable in a few days.

CITY IMMUNE FROM BREWERY REFUND MOVE

Assessments Here Have Been Reduced As Prohibition Affected Value

Possible readjustment by the United States government of tax rolls to allow for brewery property depreciation caused by the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act is not likely to have the bearing upon the tax situation of local brewery and malt companies, that it will have upon that of brewery property in other cities, in the opinion of Theodore Berg, city attorney.

When interviewed on the effect of action now contemplated by the United States government, he said that adjustments of the assessed valuation of local brewery property had frequently been made by the city board of equalization in accordance with the depreciation of that property. Moreover, to be eligible for any refund, he said, the owners must protest at the time of the tax payments.

ASK MILLIONS BACK
With the 1917 claims for tax refunds adjusted, the government, according to reports from Washington, is free to proceed with 1918 claims, among which are reductions sought on taxes paid on millions of dollars in Wisconsin, taxes paid on about $18,000,000 in brewery property and $6,000,000 in saloon and cafe property in Milwaukee. That the national prohibition act has cut heavily into the value of local brewery property is seen in from the gradual reduction of the assessed valuation. The Wisconsin Malt & Grain Co., assessed in 1917 at $240,000 was assessed in 1918 at $200,000; $200,000 in 1919; $100,000 in 1920; $75,000 in 1921; $40,000 in 1922. Depreciation of the George Walter Brewing company is seen from the following assessments: $70,800 in 1918; $58,800 in 1919; $62,300 in 1921; $53,900 in 1922.

FURS & MYSTERY

— By —
A. Carstensen
BROADTAIL AND CARACUL

Enormous quantities of lamb skins various kinds are regularly used in the manufacture of wearing apparel in this and other countries. While most of the skins are white, many are light or mixed grey, and a few are black.

Peculiar lamb finds large use in the manufacture of ladies' and children's apparel and in addition to being an excellent mourning fur, it is considered by some as being superior in beauty to any fur with the possible exception of sable.

Broadtail lamb skins have been taken from unborn lambs, but are usually taken from lambs a few days old. The tight curl and the wave of the fleece show a handsome wave effect similar to that in moire silk. In fact, a garment of broad tail, properly fitted, will show the lines of the figure equally as well as a garment of moire silk.

Caracul is a handsomely figured, beautifully curled skin taken from young lambs before its excellent black color begins to change.

Space does not permit us to describe the various grades of lamb skin, but we have described the three most sought after. The others are lower in quality and should be, and generally are used in the making of cheaper garments than midday's apparel.

While the demand for the various lamb skins is small in comparison to the demand for the skins of many other fur bearing animals, yet it is well to know these things and always select a furrier whose integrity is unquestioned.

CHERRY PICKERS ARE NOTIFIED TO FILE THEIR NAMES

Dennison, State Superintendent Invites Last Year's Boys Back

J. E. Dennison, boys work secretary of Appleton Y. M. C. A., mailed 900 personal letters Wednesday to former cherry pickers of the Y. M. C. A. camp at Sturgeon Bay. Mr. Dennison was in charge of Camp Golf, the Appleton camp, for two years and now is superintendent of all the cherry pickers' camps.

In his letter he explains his appointment by the Wisconsin Y. M. C. A. and declares that with many of the old campers returning, he looks for the best season of any thus far at Sturgeon Bay. The chances are that the camp will fill up rapidly and late applicants will be disappointed, as they have been in former years, he said.

WILL REGISTER GIRLS
The girls' camp is being promoted by the Y. W. C. A. of Chicago, but Mr. Dennison is in position to take registrations and will forward them to Chicago.

The letters were mailed to cherry pickers outside of Appleton and included the cities of Green Bay, Marinette, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Racine, Kenosha, and Oconto. Appleton cherry pickers will be cared for direct from local headquarters.

The coming camp will open July 5 and close Aug. 5 and will be under the direction of the state Y. M. C. A. Leonard Hendrickson of Lawrenceville college will direct them. There will be a number of college men, several of whom have been at the camps during the previous seasons. The boys are divided into groups of 12 with an older boy carefully selected and instructed as the group leader.

PRICE IS FIXED
The base price is 2 1/2 cents per quart for cherries picked on the stem, with a graduated bonus beginning at 60 quarts. The board will be 60 cents a day to those who remain until the end of the camp and 7 cents to those who remain only part of the time. A registration fee of 50 cents is required which will be refunded to those who remain in camp until its close. The only other expense to the camper is his railroad fare.

The daily program begins at 6 o'clock in the morning with the meal. Breakfast is served at 6:30 a.m. work in the orchard is in order from 7 to 12 o'clock, with an hour and one half off for lunch and rest. In the afternoon the cherry pickers work in the orchards from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. The hours from 6 to 8 o'clock are given over to recreation and from 8 to 9 o'clock is the indoor social hour. Light is out at 9 o'clock.

NEED PAPER MEN FOR C. OF C. TRIP

Every effort is being made to get papermill men in this part of the state to attend the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in New York next week. The Appleton Chamber of Commerce has cards for those who wish to attend and will gladly send manufacturers as delegates. Two papermill men are slated for the national board and the interest among their fellows is keen.

It is not certain which members of the Appleton chamber will attend the conference. Several men who had considered the trip are now out of town and no appointments of delegates has been made Tuesday.

HORTONIA WILL PLANT LARGE CABBAGE CROP

Davil Hordens of Hortonville, a member of the county board, was in Appleton Tuesday to attend a meeting of the growers and building committee of which he is a member. He said most of the farmers in his part of the county were through seeding and those still busy will finish the latter part of the week.

A large acreage of cabbage is to be planted in Hortonville next fall. In most instances the seed cabbage has been planted. While there will be a large acreage in the vicinity of Hortonville will be comparatively small, he said.

Ravine Fades As City Cleans Up Its Rubbish

One of the things that strikes a former resident of Appleton after a long absence from the city is not only the many new business buildings, homes and streets, but an actual change in the landscape. Some of the valleys in Appleton are actually being "exalted." Some of the ravines needed for building locations are disappearing.

Bruges now span a number of ravines that once were great handicaps to traffic. In the early days of Appleton the village of "Appleton" was separated on the west from "Grand Chute" or "Martin" by the deep ravine between Superior-st and North Division st.

Steel and stone structures were used to span some of the ravines for traffic purposes, and tons and tons of dirt were used to fill in approaches. During the time of Oscar F. Weger's service as city engineer and street commissioner in Appleton a considerable amount of filling has been done in ravines with rubbish. The street department has gradually been collecting many loads of refuse and ashes, and one ravine that is showing the results of it is that between Superior-st and North Division-st near the street department buildings.

With rubbish as a filler, the department has effected a crossing connected with Washington-st and the span is gradually becoming wider. Last year the mountain of rubbish received quite an additional supply from the debris collected during cleanup week. Dilapidated automobile bodies, tires, stoves, barrels, boxes, furniture, bottles, ashes, tree limbs collected from last year's street storm and many other forms of refuse are buried in the ravine. This year's cleanup week is expected to augment the piles to a great extent.

There Is No Other Food Like Grape-Nuts

WHILE practically every man, woman and child in the English-speaking world knows Grape-Nuts as a delicious, nourishing and wholesome cereal, and while it is common knowledge that Grape-Nuts with milk or cream is a complete food, many housewives do not know of the appetizing and economical dishes that can be prepared with Grape-Nuts. It lends itself, we believe, to more uses than any other cereal. The convenience and economy of Grape-Nuts, and the flavor, zest and wholesomeness which it imparts to other food, make it invaluable in every home.

Frequently we receive interesting letters from women throughout the country, telling about the attractive dishes they make with Grape-Nuts—delicious puddings, salads, dressings for fowls, etc. No doubt there are thousands of women who are finding varied uses for Grape-Nuts in their home cooking, and even more thousands who will be glad to learn of those varied uses; for while we all cling to old favorite dishes, we also welcome and enjoy a change.

So that is the thought back of our offer of more than $7500.00 in cash for new ways of using Grape-Nuts. To those women who are already using Grape-Nuts in various ways, other than as a breakfast cereal or in the recipes given here, and to those women who would like to try their hand at developing some new way to use Grape-Nuts, we offer to buy at $50.00 each not less than 101 new Grape-Nuts Recipes. We plan to include these new Recipes in a beautifully illustrated cook book.

What Is Grape-Nuts?

Grape-Nuts is a highly nutritious food in the form of crisp, golden granules. It contains the full nutrient of wheat and barley, including vitamin-B and mineral elements required for building sturdy health. These elements are often lacking in the ordinary diet, chiefly through "over-refinement" in the preparation of food.

No other food is so thoroughly baked as Grape-Nuts. More than 20 hours are consumed in the baking process which makes Grape-Nuts easy to digest, and also develops a natural sweetness from the grains themselves.

The form and crispness of Grape-Nuts invite thorough mastication—a decided advantage because this not only provides proper exercise for the teeth, but makes for good digestion. Every housewife in the Land should take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity to earn the tidy sum of $50.00 by a little pleasant and educational effort in her own home. Also the fair and equal chance to secure one of the liberal awards to be made by Good Housekeeping Institute.

Moreover, there's the greater knowledge of the value of Grape-Nuts, not only as a delicious breakfast cereal, but in the preparation of a variety of appetizing dishes that add to the health and pleasure of the whole family.

Cement Starts Things—and Keeps Them Going

Scores of industries keep producing, armies of workmen are kept busy, to supply demands arising from the use of portland cement.

Unlike most common articles, cement not only starts things but keeps them going. On every construction job it creates demand for an almost immeasurable volume of other essential materials and services.

Just take the one most closely related class of these—sand, gravel, crushed stone—the "aggregate" for concrete. Simply to get these out of the earth and prepare them for use during the season of active demand, requires the employment of at least 50,000 men.

Hundreds of thousands more are engaged in concrete work on construction jobs.

One would hardly think that the water in concrete amounted to much. Yet more had to be pumped or measured for this purpose last year than was used altogether in Duluth or Fort Worth.

Transporting the cement and "aggregates" for concrete keeps more locomotives and freight cars busy than there are on the New York Central Railroad.

And those engines burn coal, 6,500,000 tons a year, as much as 6,500 miners take out.

And so the list might be lengthened indefinitely.

The cement industry depends on a great number of other industries. They also depend on it. In a very real sense, these are all one industry.

POSTPONE SPRING WOMANS CLUB DANCE

College Is Given Preference
When May 8 Is Found
Conflicting Date

When two organizations have chosen a day for some enterprise and have cherished it as their own and representatives of those two organizations meet and discover that they have a conflicting date, things are likely to happen. May 8 is such a date.

Since last fall, May 8 has been set as the date for the last community dance to be given by sports council of Appleton Womans club. For several months, May 8 has been the date set for the annual college play. It was not until Wednesday, however, that the two organizations were brought face to face with the conflict when the publicity manager for the college play went to the womans clubroom to have a poster put up.

Neither organization wanted to give up its date but both realized that the conflict would mean loss of patrons. The publicity man could not see how his date could be changed, neither could the womans club representatives see how the dance could be postponed. Since the womans club hopes for considerable cooperation from many sources the dance has been postponed until May 18. No date intervening could be secured because the orchestras were not available or there was another conflict.

KRAUT FACTORY TO BE BUILT SOON BY SHIOCTON GROUP

Plant Costing $15,000 Will Provide Guaranteed Market For Cabbage

Special to Post-Crescent.
Shiocton — Shiocton is to have a kraut factory in the near future. At a meeting last week a large number of farmers pledged sufficient acreage to supply a factory if one was built. Steps have already been taken to organize the company and as soon as plans can be drawn the construction work will commence. The building will be completed in time to receive the fall crop. Mr. Schroeder of Hortonville and Mr. Flanagan of Bear Creek, were present and addressed the meeting. Both are experienced kraut men. Mike Mack, George Lonkey, W. E. Riley and several farmers also spoke at the meeting.

The factory which the new company proposes to erect will be 250 by 70 feet, with a capacity of 2,000 tons. It will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.

A factory of this kind in Shiocton will be a help to the farmer, as it assures him a ready market for cabbage and does away with the necessity of waiting to unload, as is the case when storing or loading into cars.

MANY AT CONTEST
The league oratorical and declamatory contest which was held at New London Friday was well represented by Shiocton high school students who attended both afternoon and evening sessions.

Greenville—One hundred sixty-four chicks were consumed in a fire starting at the Frank Laudon farm early Tuesday morning. A lamp in the incubator was the cause of the fire, which also damaged the chicken house. Plenty of help was obtained so the blaze could be extinguished before it reached the barn nearby.

LOSES PRIZE BEARD AS SAVES KITTENS FROM FIRE

By Associated Press.
Ocean City, N. J.—John Hanson, an aged fisherman, who has not cut or trimmed his beard since Grover Cleveland was president, had his whiskers and hair on his head burned off when he rescued a litter of kittens from a fire that destroyed his little cottage here.

He was in a nearby lot repairing his fishing nets when he noticed a train which passes the rear of his cottage, discharge a shower of cinders, which fell on the roof of his home, and immediately started a blaze.

Remembering his 3 day old kittens, Hanson rushed into the burning cottage and brought the kittens to safety. But the prized beard, a yard long, went up in smoke.

Now a QUICK Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Tell Him Which

Your grocer has two styles now

Now there's an oat dish almost ready to serve. It is called Quick Quaker—the quickest cooking oats in the world. Get this style, and your oat dish—perfectly cooked—is ready before the coffee.

No other oat dish compares in quick cooking.

The same delights

The same extra quality, the same delicious flavor. All Quaker Oats are flaked from the finest grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. All the flavorless grains are discarded. So we get but ten pounds of these premier flakes from a bushel.

That's the reason for the Quaker fame. Millions of mothers, all the world over, send for Quaker Oats so children get that flavor.

Quick Quaker has that flavor. But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

If your breakfasts are hurried and you want a quick dish, Quick Quaker is ready in from 3 to 5 minutes. But get this Quaker quality, this super-flavor anyway. Serve this supreme food at its best.

Regular Quaker Oats

Come in package at left—the style you have always known.

Quick Quaker Oats

Come in package at right, with the "Quick" label. Your grocer has both. Be sure to get the style you want.

MARK BAUMGARTNER, Agent

Follow State Laws In 1923 Assessment Work

Previous to their starting out Tuesday on the 1923 season of assessments, city, village and town assessors received their instructions from Anton Oppgaard, acting assessor of incomes and supervisor of assessors.

Although field work has been eliminated during the months of May and June, Mr. Oppgaard will be able to be of assistance to assessors who may come to his office in the courthouse or telephone him for information. If he is summoned by telephone out to localities, the expenses will have to be borne by the town and village boards.

"By law all personal property is assessed at its true cash value as of May 1," Mr. Oppgaard says. "Real estate, however, is assessed as of the time of the meeting of the board of review, and not as of May 1. The board of review is designated by law to meet the last Monday in June, but if the assessor is not ready it may adjourn from time to time upon request."

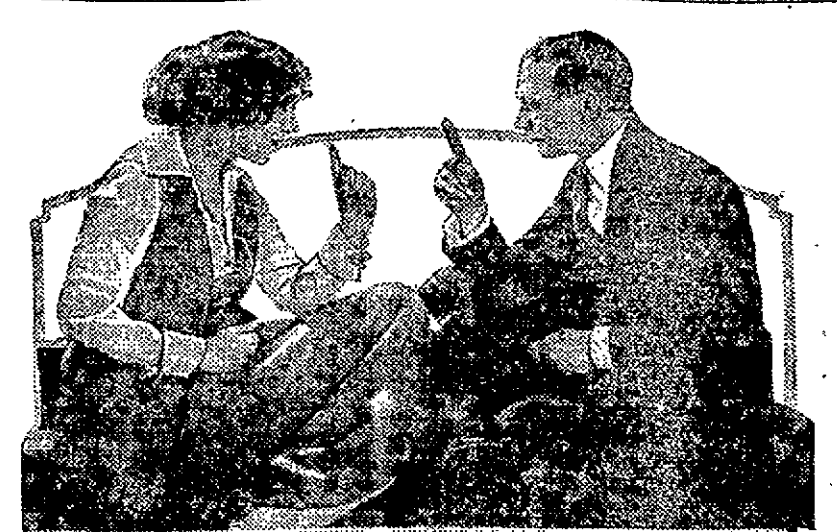

"There are two outstanding duties an assessor has to perform: 1. Find all the taxable property. 2. Place upon it the fair, reasonable, full value. The law says that real estate shall be assessed at the full value which could ordinarily be obtained therefor at private sale and that personal property shall be at the 'true cash value.' Uniformity, that is, treating everybody alike, is the first consideration.

Uniformity can be best obtained by assessing at the going value, the value which people use themselves when they buy, sell, trade, and deal. By using any other value you employ a measure which the people themselves are not accustomed to, one which is not the natural value.

"An assessment below the legal standard means a higher tax rate, which is undesirable. Study the exemption law carefully. Taxation is the rule, exemption from taxation is the exception. When in doubt as to exemption, assess. Boards of review can change the figures of the assessor only on sworn testimony, and that testimony must be better evidence than that of the assessor. A mere statement or request, even though stated upon oath, is not sufficient."

"The total assessed valuation of Outagamie county last year was $76,448,566, of which Appleton constituted $24,976,515, or more than 30 per cent. Mr. Oppgaard could not forecast how this will compare with the present year's figures.

OLD HOUSE IS MOVED FROM HOSPITAL GROUNDS

The gray frame house on the hospital grounds, formerly the possession of the Franciscan sisters has been sold to Gregory Schindler and moved across the street next to the oil station of Henry Hackett, Lake and Foster streets. A shed left on the premises is also to be moved in the near future, the wooden fence about the hospital is to be torn down, a roadway leading to the entrance of the hospital addition is to be made and the grounds are to be beautified this summer.

BRANCHES MAY HANDLE OWN RED CROSS CASES

Organization work of the Red Cross is being continued in the county with the idea of making it possible for the branches to handle their own service cases. Miss Ann Helm of the Appleton office is working with the various county committees to establish the work in the communities. She has visited several branches and will be able to complete a part of the work this week.

LITTLE CHANGE IN WAGES PAID CARPENTERS HERE

According to carpenter contractors, there will be little change in the wage scale paid carpenters in Appleton this year. The carpenters union has advanced the minimum scale from 75 cents to 80 cents an hour but, it is said, most of the contractors were paying as high as 80 cents to competent men last year. It also is said that most of the contractors here are operating on an "open shop" basis.

Public Approval

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) stands before the public squarely on its merits as an organization of service.

In directing the affairs of this Company, the management is animated by ideals of justice, fairness and equity to employee, consumer, competitor, stockholder and the general public.

Because it insists that the rights of all should be safeguarded, the Company has prospered and has taken its place as a leader in an essential industry.

To achieve commercial success, profits are necessary. Profits can come only through liberal patronage of the buying public.

This public will not patronize an organization whose methods are unfair or unjust. Continued prosperity comes only to the Company which renders a superior service and sells honest merchandise at an honest price.

To every fair-minded observer it must be obvious that hundreds of thousands of people are patronizing the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and are doing so because they have found by experience that the service rendered by this company is reliable and that the goods it sells are uniform and dependable, and that its prices are consistently fair.

Figures recently published by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce show that one-third of the automobile registrations are concentrated in the ten states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)—yet, the price of gasoline in this territory compares favorably with that in any similar section in the world.

This low scale of prices is attributed to the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

By its ever increasing patronage the public places the stamp of its approval upon the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The acknowledged efficiency of this Company is due to the unflinching loyalty of its 27,000 employees; to the high ideals of service which the management has inaugurated and insists upon maintaining; to the unequalled facilities which this Company has provided for carrying on the business.

The loyalty of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) employee is based upon the knowledge that this Company recognizes the rights of the worker to steady employment at good wages; to a liberal annuity plan; to protection against accident, and to opportunity to invest in the Company's business on favorable terms.

Because of this efficiency, recognized and approved by the public, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to pay to the stockholders a fair return on the capital invested, and to build up a sufficient reserve to enable it to expand its business to keep pace with the public need.

WHISPERING SAGE

By HARRY SINCLAIR DRAGO AND JUDITH NOEL

Hands stopped moving. Some one dropped a gun. With one accord they turned and regarded him as inevitably. Cash caught the tension. "The fence is fifty yards inside our line," he went on. "We built it there so as to be safe without checking up. We'll go down through the chimney, and still-hunt from the little cove that lies half-way to the creek. If we have any trouble we'll be on our own land." The woman's eyes roved on Blaze. He had picked up his gun along with the others.

"You ain't goin', are you, Kildare, not with that arm?" Cash asked, a note of gruff admiration for the man's pluck creeping into his voice. "My business arm is all right," Blaze grinned. "I'm aimin' to see this thing through."

Darkness closed hid the moon as they made the cove. Brother Jones started for the creek-bottom. He went a hundred yards when he turned to send them a low cautious whistle.

"They're coming now," Brother Jones whispered. "About two dozen. They'll be up to the wire in three or four minutes. I caught 'em jumping 'most that bare spot round the bend. Now there'll be hell to pay."

One minute . . . two minutes . . . a few seconds . . . and the creek bottom swarmed with men. Tomorrow's hand went up. The old battery of the Double A rang out, and like the fabled demons of the Andes, Acklin's hired warriors crashed into the bewildered Basques. To get away as quickly as possible seemed to be the one ambition of most of the men from the valley.

Little Salvador and four or five others, however, fought their way to Esteban's side and tried to return the fire of Acklin's riders. But every time the Double A guns roared and ripped wide the darkness, some one deserted.

The fire continued. Salvador looked for his companions. Only Esteban, Romero, and he were left. Then, seeing the battle was hopeless, he followed his friends. Romero and Esteban and about enough of it too. The bank of the creek offered them fair protection. Around the bend the ground flattened out. It meant a wild dash as the Double A men closed in.

Ten seconds brought them to the flat country where they were an easy target. The Double A guns flashed. One of the boys shrieked and toppled out of his saddle. A second volley followed, but the other Basque was out of sight.

"Who is he?" Cash cried, as Melody and Blaze rode down into the bottom. The boy lay on his face. Melody turned him over.

"Ain't that too bad?" he groaned. "Then to Cash: 'It's Old Ironsides' kid."

And as they carried Esteban to the Bull's Head, Mercedes wondered why little Basilio sobbed as he tossed in his tiny bed. Long desert-miles stretched between the Rancho Buena Vista and the spot where Esteban fell. And yet, with an intuition rare even among the blind, the little had known that something terrible had happened.

Mercedes awakened her brother and tried to comfort him. "What is the matter?" she implored.

"Esteban!" he cried, "something had has come, madre-dios!"

The little pet name went unheard. Mercedes only knew that threat was dry with sudden agony. She had had her own misgivings about Esteban. Hastily throwing on a wrap, she started for Jose's room. The hallway made a sharp angle as it turned to lead into the wing where he slept. A small window opened on the front yard from the angle.

Without thinking, Mercedes stopped and looked down. Esteban's window was plainly visible, and hanging from it she saw the dangling reata.

"Madre de Dios!" she gasped: "the child is right!"

With swift feet, she ran for her father. Through the closed door she told him what she had discovered. Jose bade her go back to Basilio. He dressed hurriedly and followed her to the little fellow's bedside.

Then Mercedes and her father hurried down stairs. The old Basque pulled the bell-cord for Mariano. When the mozo appeared, frightened at being called at this unusual hour, Jose ordered him to get his horse.

Tears filled Mercedes' eyes as she saw her father take down his rifle and fill his long-unused belt with cartridges. His set face and sparing words did not serve to lessen her dread.

When Jose had crossed the creek he held to the north until he came to the entrance of Smoky Canon.

He turned his horse into the longer trail that led to the fence and up to the chimney. As he did so a gun flashed from the rim-rocks above him.

MARQUETTE TRACK TEAM COMES HERE ON SATURDAY

Hilltoppers Unable To Hold Meet On Own Field; Big Squad At Lawrence

First Track Meet Of Season Will Be Held On Lawrence Field On Saturday Afternoon

Marquette university track team will meet Lawrence college squad at Lawrence field Saturday afternoon, it has been announced by H. D. McCleskey, athletic director of the local school. Lawrence originally was scheduled to meet the Hilltoppers in Milwaukee but the Marquette track is in such poor shape that the athletic officials of the Milwaukee school requested Lawrence to hold the meet here and Lawrence consented.

This will be the first time Lawrence has met Marquette in Appleton. The strength of the Milwaukee squad is practically unknown. Lawrence, also has not been put up to the test but in practice several excellent marks have been made.

A week from Saturday Stevens Point normal school team will meet Lawrence on the local field. There is a possibility that Oshkosh Normal also will send its team here to make it a triangular meet.

The track squad at Lawrence this year is the largest in recent years and one of the largest in the history of the school. There has been a remarkable revival of interest in track and field sports all over the country and as a result many long standing records already have gone by the board. It would not be surprising if the records in almost every event will be bettered before the end of the present season.

A big question mark may be put in front of the Outagamie County Baseball league. While four towns have agreed to start hostilities May 13 two other clubs are still lacking and unless other cities in the county get busy bids will be closed and the circuit will go up in the air. Black Creek, Hortonville, Freedom and New London are the present charter holders. Bear Creek wants to get in. It was reported at the gathering Tuesday night at which plans were to be taken up, but the meeting was never held when only two of the league representatives showed up.

Conley, the Wichita parson, showed class galore in his fistie skirmish in Green Bay on Monday night with Jack Zwiek, who has put Kaukauna on the fist map in big letters. Conley toppled off Mr. Zwiek early in the second round. The Kaukauna boy left himself wide open and Conley lost little time in sticking one over which had sleep producing results.

Some of the fight followers thought it was all bunk about the grudge between Zwiek and Conley but, as a matter of fact, both of the boys were in there to win at any cost. As a result of the scrap, Conley will blow back to Milwaukee and pick up some of the easy money down around the Cream City.

Jack Dempsey has decided to cut short his ring vacation and will battle Tommy Gibbons at Shelby, Mont., on July 4. The champion is getting a nice fat guarantee with an option on half the net gate. The scrap will be staged under the auspices of the American Legion. This scrap will end a two year vacation by Dempsey. His last encounter being the famous ring fray with Georges Carpentier at Boyle's Forty Acres in Jersey City in 1921.

Even the best of 'em get upset some times. The undefeated Illinois nine met a 7 to 2 reversal at the hands of Iowa. The Hawkeyes had lost a game to the Suckers earlier in the season but this time Lungren's hopfules were lost in the shuffle. Evidently Iowa intends to be just as successful on the diamond as in chasing the pigskin or engaging the basket ball sphere. Victory is the Hawkeyes' middle name these days.

Blades, the St. Louis Cardinals' new outfielder, may be as green as grass in baseball knowledge but he surely knows how to tickle the nits. So far this season, the Mound City recruit has connected for a quarter of circuit swats besides getting his share of one basers. When the Cards went south, Blades was considered excess baggage but his hitting prowess soon won him a permanent berth.

YANKS WIN, 5 TO 7

Washington—A long double by Bush in the eighth inning, scoring Ward, who had walked, gave New York Tuesday's game with Washington, 5 to 7. The Nationals obtained a big lead off Mays and Hoyt, but in the seventh inning Zachary weakened and the Yankees scored six runs.

Batteries: Bush, Hoyt, Mays and Schang; Hollingsworth, Russell, Zachary and Gharvity.

Hill Is In Missouri And Showing Wrestling Fans

What's happening to George Hill? He's wrestling, of course.

The latest news from the Appleton heavyweight comes from Springfield, Mo., where the grappler has gained a "second home." Clippings from the Springfield Republican tell of a hot "Strangler" failed to throw Hill. This occurred on April 7 and the newspaper has to say the following in part:

"George Hill wrestled Strangler Lewis to a standstill in the 52 minutes which was his share in the three cornered bout, staged in the Convention hall. The champion was in misery a great deal of the time and the bell saved the "Strangler" from having a fall marked against his record. Hill was the second man to enter in the handicap match."

According to the report Hill proved to be a past master of the body scissors and had his way for a time.

Hill's most recent match took place April 16, when he defeated Dick Davis-court in two out of three falls. Hill came back after conceding the first fall to Davis-court on a toe hold. Hill used a body scissors each time to win.

Selection Of Clubs Is Vital To Golf Novice

BY MIKE BRADY

To play golf it is, of course, necessary to have clubs. Anyone who thinks that in getting together a suitable set of clubs the only thing necessary is to go into a professional's shop or store and say, "I want a driver, a brassie, a midiron," etc., is harboring a delusion.

Clubs suited to one person may not be to another. Moreover, it isn't all a matter of size or strength.

I have seen six-footers, and over, playing with exceptionally short clubs and short-statured chaps playing with extra long ones. The late Louis Teller used an extra long driver and got good results with it.

WILLIAMS GETS FIFTH

Chicago—Chicago bunched hits behind errors by Gerber and bases on balls and defeated St. Louis, 5 to 3, on Tuesday. In the eighth inning Collins' fumble paved the way for a run. William's home run smash into the right field bleachers, his fifth of the season, and the first on the local grounds this year, netted the visitors two more runs in the ninth as Tobin scored in front of the stuffer. The fielding of McClellan and Mostil's batting were features.

Batteries: Prueitt, Kolp and Severeid; Leverette and Schalk.

TIGERS BEAT TRIBE

Detroit—After Pitcher Edwards had scored what appeared to be the winning run for Cleveland in the ninth inning, Detroit rallied and won Tuesday's game from the Indians, 6 to 5. Edwards hit safely four times, accounting for three of Cleveland's runs. Detroit entered the last of the ninth a run behind. With one out, Veach pinch hitting for Johnson, walked. Kerr ran for him, going to third on Blue's single to right and scoring on Haney's log fly to the same field. Uhle relieved Edwards and purposefully walked Cobb. Folgergill's liner to center put Blue across for the deciding run.

Batteries: Uhle, Edwards and O'Neil; Johnson, Francis and Woodall.

MAY 12, MINNESOTA DAY AT BADGER UNIVERSITY

Madison—Saturday, May 12, will be "Minnesota Day" at the University of Wisconsin, at which time the University of Minnesota baseball and track teams will be the guests of Wisconsin and will meet the Badger teams in intercollegiate competition at Camp Randall.

The Universities of Wisconsin and Minnesota are closer than those of any two other universities in the conference so far as athletics is concerned, meeting each year in many branches of sport, including football, basketball, baseball, cross country, track, swimming, wrestling, tennis, golf, hockey and skiing and an effort is now being made to schedule a crew race.

Both the baseball and track teams are believed to be about evenly matched and the largest crowd of the season is expected to witness the two events.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES ADDED TO BAY LINEUP

Green Bay — Two more infielders have been added to the Green Bay ball club's battle front for a try out. Moakler, who played third base for Manitowish last season and McDonald, the Marinette shortstop of 1922, are to be given a chance to display their wares with the Bay aggregation.

Moakler's clouting can be remembered by the fans here. It was his war club which had a hand in winning a couple of games for the Shipbuilders against the Bays in the State league race. McDonald has played ball in this locality for several seasons and is credited with being a classy infielder.

Captains Two

CHARLES T. BLACK

Kansas City—Charles T. Black of Alton, Ill., next year will have the distinction of being captain in the same season of the University of Kansas football and basketball teams.

Black, elected football captain at the close of the 1922 season, recently was chosen head of the basketball squad, following the university's most successful season in that branch of sport. It was undefeated by teams of the Missouri Valley conference, and came through undisputed champion. Black was a guard.

DUMOVICH OF CUBS HOLDS CINCINNATI

Reds Are Helpless Before Youngster—Lose By 3 To 1 Score

Cincinnati—Dumovich held Cincinnati helpless in all but one inning on Tuesday and Chicago won, 3 to 1, going to second place in the National league race. Keck was a trifle steady, two of the Cubs' runs being due to bases on balls, while the third was earned in the ninth inning on consecutive singles by O'Farrell, Dumovich and Stutz. The Reds scored their only tally in the sixth on singles by Duncan and Bohne and a wild throw by Heathcote.

Batteries: Dumovich and O'Farrell; Keck and Hargrave.

PIRATES HALT CARDS

St. Louis—The Cardinals' winning streak ended at four victories when they lost to Pittsburgh on Tuesday, 6 to 2. Carey knocked a homer in the third, driving in Maranville, who had singled ahead of him. The visitors pounded Sherdell for nine safeties and he was relieved in the sixth by Stuart.

Batteries: Cooper and Schmidt; Stuart, Sherdell and Almsmith.

GIANTS COP FROM DODGERS

New York—New York Nationals won their sixth game of the season from the Brooklyn club on Tuesday, 4 to 3. New York won in the ninth, when O'Connell walked, took two bases on a wild throw by Righ, and had been intentionally passed. Home scored the winning run on Bancroft's sacrifice fly after Pinch Hitter Smith had been intentionally passed. Home runs by Stewart and High accounted for all the Brooklyn runs.

Batteries: Grimes and Taylor; Johnson and Snyder.

BRAVES WHIP PHILLIES

Philadelphia—Boston made it two straight from Philadelphia on Tuesday by winning a slugfest match, 12 to 10. Cy Williams got two more home runs, a double and single. Boston took an early lead, but Behan stopped them in the fourth and the Phillies tied the score in the ninth.

High School To Play Football Game Thursday

Appleton high school spring football practice will be wound up Thursday afternoon with a regulation football game, starting at 4:30 on the Jones park gridiron. Coach A. C. Denney announced Wednesday.

The high school griders will wind up the training season a day earlier than originally planned in order to get started on the field meet, May 25.

The football game Thursday will be the first pigskin chasing affair ever staged in Appleton at this time of the year. Coach Denney who started drilling the youngsters two weeks ago believes that he has the youngsters started enough to be of some help to his successor at the school next fall, when the athletic mentor will take command of the Lawrence college activities.

VETERANS ASSIST COACH

The Blue and Orange candidates have shown up well. The first scrimmage took place last Friday while this week was devoted to blocking and tackling in the line. Denney is being assisted by the veterans of last year.

The game scheduled for Thursday afternoon will be played in four quarters with the periods cut down somewhat. Although there is enough material for four teams only two elevens will get in action with the other youngsters getting a chance at the oval as subs. Each team will be allowed to use only five different plays.

OPEN TO PUBLIC

The game will be open to the public and all they will have to do is take a position on the sides of the Jones park.

Captain "Clem" Gerou, captain of the football team will not take part in the game. He has been suffering with throat trouble all winter and hasn't been able to report for practice this spring.

Among the newcomers who have been showing exceptional ability are Bohon, Emmans and Venzel, all sophomores. They are being used as full and halfbacks. Stammer, a freshman, is another promising backfield man.

VETERANS BACK IN LINE

Last year's veterans, Bleyer, Fischer and Camps will play in the line though efforts were first made to convert them to the backfield. Courtney and Bloomer probably will be the quarters of the opposing teams. Courtney has been averaging 40 to 45 yards in punting.

The best center material is La Roux, a 200 pound youngster.

The Hyde twins continued to make an excellent showing in the line with Don Hyde, promising to be the best punter next fall. Don has been booting the pigskin an average of 50 yards.

Mrs. Adsit Rolls 252 In Single Game, Cops Cash

The only score above 250 this season rolled by a woman on the Arecife alleys was made Monday night by Mrs. A. E. Adsit when she toppled 252 maples and took the $10 offered by the alleys to any woman able to accomplish this feat.

HOME PLAYERS TO START SUNDAY

The Home Players league means business. The eight club circuit will start Sunday as per schedule with the exception of Oshkosh, which arranged a game before the league organized. The Appleton club will fall 11 to 9. The battle was a practice exhibition with Kimberly beaten in the eighth, 9 to 5. Then the Kimberlites started a rally and added six runs. The Kimberly battery was made up of Arnold Poca, brother of Clarence, and Harvey Hartjes. The Menasha twirlers were W. Domb, and J. Rinz while Slenski did the receiving.

Appleton promises to have a strong team. In its five inning practice exhibition it with interlaces the Appleton amateurs won, 4 to 2. Otis Wein-kaut did the twirling while "Red" Ashman caught. The same battery will face the Kimberly attack next Sunday in the Brand ball park, while the State league outfit will be busy in Menasha.

The drainage pipes, which through the carelessness of the workman have been permitted to remain on the fairway, are considered upkeep. There is no reason why the player should suffer a penalty because of such

Lawrence Coeds Plan Cinder Path Meet On May 26

Lawrence college coeds are not going to be outdone by mere men.

This is the decision the girl students of the Blue and White school after the meeting Tuesday night at which the coeds mapped out an athletic program, which is to rival the doings of the men.

A track meet will be held May 26. Drills for the event will start at once. Mrs. Anita Kawaleski, is the director of women's gymnastic college activities.

a condition. The player has the right to lift such ball and drop it without penalty.

A large size worm is on the putting green on a direct line between the players ball and the cup. The player feels that unless he removes the worm it will seriously interfere with the direction of his putt. Is a worm on the putting green regarded as a loose impediment? Is there a penalty if the worm is removed by brushing it aside with the clubhead?

A worm on the putting green is regarded as loose impediment. The player has a perfect right to remove it, but must do so by picking it up. The player makes himself open to a penalty for brushing aside the worm with his clubhead.
